Biting into Profits

Who doesn't love indulging in delicious homemade goodies? The monthly Bake Sale is a staple here at SIS, an event that is enjoyed and anticipated by students and teachers alike. It has become a tradition here at our school and is one that will continue for years to come.

The most recent October Bake Sale was a major success, bringing in over $985 dollars. The junior class was the official sponsor, contributing food, as well as funding to buy extra items and ingredients. When asked about its success, Ms. Milli said: “This has been one of the biggest. Usually it is between $700 and $800. Juniors did a very good job.” The Bake Sale Queens, along with parents from the junior class, helped with not only the baking, but selling and setting up as well.

Some of the delectable items offered included cookies, BBQ, fries, ice kekes, and much more! Some of the student responses when asked what they like best about the Bake Sale were as follows: “It’s the most fun day of the month;” “I really love the homemade cookies;” and “It’s fun to get to choose what to buy and eat it with my friends.” In the end, everybody wins: good food, great fun and the school raises funds. Happy munching!
